FRIDAY MORNING

9:30.—The thanksgiving service was conducted by Sisters Crews and Walker.

The meeting was opened by singing, "Come, Trembling Sinner," led by Sister Crews.

Sister Walker read the scripture, and prayer was offered by Sister Crews.

Sister Linsday led "I Am Thine, O Lord."

The sisters enjoyed a warm meeting.

Prayer was offered by Rev. S. G. Gilmer. Rev. Mr. Linsday lined and sang hymn No. 151, "Father, I Stretch My Hands to Thee," which was sung with much feeling.

The text was taken from Numbers 22nd chapter and 26th verse. (Reference): And the angel of the Lord went farther; and stood in a narrow place. (Subject): "Let Jesus Lead You."

Rev. Mr. Fuller was at his best; he very ably portrayed the subject. His heart was in the work, and it seemed like as he opened his mouth, God poured out blessings.

The sisters were deeply impressed, knowing that unless we let Jesus lead us we can get nowhere. Rev. Mr. Fuller gave us a wonderful blessing.

Prayer was offered by Rev. W. M. Linsday.

Sister Gay sang, "Let Jesus Lead you."

Collection for the morning session, $4.00.

Mrs. Sallie Thacker asked the blessing.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON

2:00 o'clock—Vice-President presiding.

Praise service was conducted by delegates from Winston-Salem and Guilford, N. C., Sisters Arty Leach and Mary Smith. The sisters sang, "The Day Is Past and Gone."

The scripture was taken from the 62nd division of the Psalms and was read by Sister Leach.

Prayer was offered by Rev. W. M. Linsday.

The sisters got warmed up and we had a wonderful praise service.

Rev. Mr. Foster sang, "Amazing Grace."

Prayer was offered by Rev. E. W. Posey, after which he sang, "Must Jesus Bear The Cross Alone."

Rev. Mr. Posey presented the speaker of the afternoon, in the person of Rev. L. C. Foster.

Rev. Mr. Foster sang, "I've Anchored My Soul." He took for his text, Exodus 15th chapter, 23rd verse.

In his sermon he urged the Auxiliary to press onward. He encouraged the president to look forward and not to be discouraged by the difficulties that constantly arise in the work we try to do for Christ. Rev. Mr. Foster preached a very soul-reviving sermon, and the things he fed us will be meat for many days.

After the sermon Rev. Mr. Posey sang, "Go, Preach My Gospel."

The Vice-President then presented Rev. E. W. Posey who opened the topic for discussion, "What can we do to check the flow of sin that is so swiftly moving through the land?"

Words can not express the fervor with which Rev. Mr. Posey so eloquently discussed the topic. Rev. Mr. Posey impressed us greatly as to our duty as Christian co-workers. He emphasized strongly our duty as Christians, and urged the Auxliary to "get on the job." He declared the effort must be made by the Christian people and urged us to disband card playing, theaters and any co-operation with the worldly pleasures. He was followed by Mrs. Emma Gay who seemed very much wrought up on the subject, and on the whole everybody was deeply impressed by the topic.

Next was the collection, taken by Mrs. Dovia Crompton and Mrs. Mary Winston.

Collection for the afternoon session, $2.57.

The blessing was asked by Mrs. Melvina Troxler.

FRIDAY NIGHT

7:30 o'clock. Praise service, conducted by delegates from Gibsonville and Belleview.

Scripture lesson was taken from the 4th division of the Psalms and was read by Mrs. Melvina Troxler.

Prayer was offered by Sister Troxler.

8:00 o'clock, President presiding. Welcome addresses:

On behalf of the Church by Rev. J. P. Capel.

On behalf of the Auxiliary, by Mrs. Hannah Graves.

On behalf of the M. E. Church of Trinity, by Mrs. Alberta Gwyn.

On behalf of the First Baptist Church of Trinity, by Mr. E. D. Graves.

Response by Mrs. M. E. Crews.

Next was a duet, "Heavenly Sunshine," by little Misses Lucile Linsday and Virgie Lee Linsday.

And right here we were favored with a selection by the members of the First Institutional Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, N. C., of which Rev. E. D. Gholston is pastor.

The Winston choir sang an old melodious spiritual, "And How They Did Sing."

Rev. Mr. Gholston read the scripture lesson from II Kings, 6th chapter, first ten verses.

Prayer was offered by Rev. L. S. Troxler.

Rev. Mr. Gholston then presented the speaker, Rev. S. G. Gilmer.

Rev. Mr. Gilmer took the rostrum with his accustomed smile, and we knew we were in for something good.

After singing a verse of one of his favorite songs Rev. Mr. Gilmer entertained us gloriously. He used as his subject, "Go Wash and Be Clean."

We can't write after Rev. Mr. Gilmer's sermon. It was beyond human explanation. God was glorious through Rev. Mr. Gilmer.

Rev. Mr. Posey then sang, "Thou Hast Been a Shelter For Me."

The Winston choir then favored us with another selection, "Somebody's Knocking at Your Door."

The Auxiliary feasted again.

Next was the collection, lifted by Rev. E. D. Leach and Mr. E. D. Graves.

Collection for the night session, $5.00.

Mrs. Laura Linsday asked a blessing for the offering.

Next was the appointments and assignments to homes.

12:30 o'clock.—Obituary service was opened by singing, "Must Jesus Bear the Cross Alone," led by the President.

Next the obituary report was read by the President.

Rev. Mr. Troxler conducted the condolence.

Glen Raven—Mr. Jesse Gamer.

Rev. Mr. Troxler's text was taken from the first chapter of Revelations, 18th verse. We all know Rev. Mr. Troxler. We felt that we were in the presence of God. He showed us death as a beautiful thing. Something to look forward to with joy and glad anticipation instead of sorrow and tears.

At the conclusion of the service, he so beautifully sang, "Children of the Heavenly King." And the meeting ended with an old time shout.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON

3:30 o'clock—Praise service, conducted by delegates from Haw River, Brown's Summit and Piney Grove.

3:50 o'clock.—Vice-President in the chair. The discussion of the topic: "The Necessity of Real Christian Women That We May Save the Girls of Today." The discussion was opened by Rev. W. M. Linsday, followed by Rev. Mr. Miller from Randleman Baptist church, Mrs. Thompson and others. The topic was broadly discussed and was enjoyed by every one.

Next the visitors were introduced and we were favored by some very touching remarks by Rev. J. A. Paylor, followed by Rev. Mr. Renwick and Rev. Mr. Hoover.

Next the collection was lifted by Rev. Mr. Hoover and Rev. Mr. Siler. Amount, $4.00. The blessing was asked by Sister Stokes.

The meeting adjourned until the evening session.

Amount taken in collections, $18.87.

SATURDAY NIGHT

7:30 o'clock.—Praise service, led by delegates from Gibsonville, Locust Grove, Guilford College, Elm Grove, and Brown's Summit.

Next was the President's Address which runs as follows:

The President's Address to the Woman's Auxiliary of the High Point Association at Trinity, N. C.

June 30, 1928.

Madam Vice-President, Officers,
Pastors and Friends:

There is not a time that I come before you to read my address that I don't have a deep feeling of emotional gratitude and reverence towards you. I sincerely appreciate the confidence you have shown that you had in me in selecting me to be your president for the past five years, and I am lost for words to express my gratitude for your earnest cooperation during this time. I feel indebted to you beyond my natural power to repay. I am sure it will take my whole life full of Christian service to fulfill my duty to you.

In holding this office I realize that I have been called upon to aid in one of the most worthy causes of the human family. Yet I am very thankful that I am asked to aid you in carrying out the program, for it is too much for any one to attempt alone.

When you asked me to be your president I felt the sacredness in the call, and I earnestly sought the Lord to lead me aright, that we may all follow Him and make no mistakes on the way.

The missionary work through its broad scope does that for us which no other organization on earth can do. It gives us the opportunity for service and then bestows on us that honor which can not be inherited from any human family. My experience in the work has taught me that it means the burdens and responsibilities of others and the peace and happiness of others.

No person who is a real Christian or missionary can be happy when at their door is a broken-hearted neighbor; nor will they shed tears because their neighbor is happy. But we bear each other's burdens and share our joys together; for the duties of life are linked together and if we have the right attitude toward life we will consider it a social duty and in terms solemn consecration.

Perhaps I am not saying what you had expected me to say in my address, but since there are so many new phases added to our work I am forced to speak to you almost in general terms, yet from a serious standpoint. And when we have planned our work we must go at it with force and effort, or our plans will be futile.

In thinking of our work we don't want to feel that we have a separate work from the church, but a special work in the church, and with the church. And in the same terms we want to think of the High Point Association, of which we are a part.

Each time that I have come before you I have spoken to you about the necessity of you having love for each other; and again I earnestly appeal to you for that one essential because the foundation of our work is built on Love, and we must protect it.

When I think of the sacredness of our work I wonder if we realize just what opportunity and privilege we have. How are we using them? Are we willing to meet our works, our deeds, and our thoughts in the presence of the Great Judge? How are we treating our fellowmen? Do we owe them anything? Romans 13-8 says: "Owe no man anything, but love each other.

We may not owe money or other necessities of life, but if we owe love, we owe the greatest debt on earth. Remember how Jesus gave His life for us because he loved us; and then think how little we are willing to sacrifice for Him.

Sisters, do we not sometimes get weak and say little things about our sisters that are not righteous and lovely? Let each of us examine ourselves and if there is anything in our hearts but real love, ask the Lord to remove it and give us that love which hides the faults of others from us. For it takes love that we may feel the cares of the Orphans, and the aged people for whom we have been striving so much within the past three years to buy a home. I must say you have been very faithful during this time, and it is encouraging to watch your untiring interest and work and to note your earnest progress for the success of the work.

Since you have been working so faithfully in raising money this year, even though sometimes it may have seemed small you have a right to come here and enjoy a heavenly feast, and to expect a Pentecostal shower. For the scripture teaches us that the least we do for Jesus will be precious in His sight.

Sisters, as we journey we want this life to be heavenly, that we may have a heaven here to go to heaven in; and we certainly get our greatest joy out of being of service to some one else.

We must not die any more. Those sisters who have fallen asleep since our last meeting are not dead, for their lives still live in the hearts of some one and will spring up and bring forth fruits of righteousness in the hearts of others.

It is always a pleasure to me for the sisters to meet and worship together. It is a sign that we are bound in the bonds of peace and happiness, which will set a high example for all with whom we come in contact. Let each life say, "Come and go with us and we will do thee good." I know some days have been dark and dreary, and sometimes the one whom we expect to help us seems to be against us. But we can not stop until Jesus says we have done enough

We thank the people of the different churches over the state who have responded to our call in helping to put the project over, and we especially commend those brethren or pastors of the High Point Association who have always stood by us.

There are those who have never left us alone, but have met us in every annual meeting. Some have not been with us; but we feel that it is because they have not understood us, or our work; and we are praying that every misunderstanding be removed, and that we may go on working under one great banner for one great cause. And then we can say as Paul said, "I have fought a good fight and I have finished the course."

I close with the words of Dickens:

"If I can keep one heart from breaking
I shall not live in vain
Or cool one pain
Or help one fainting robin unto his nest again
I shall not live in vain.

MRS. ADDIE GRAVES, President,
P. O. Box 343, Gibsonville, N. C.

Officers:

Mrs. Addie Graves, President.
Mrs. Sallie Thacker, Vice-President.
Mrs. Essie McGill, Secretary.
M. A. Christian, Assistant.

A committee was called and decided that the President's address be applied to the face of the Minutes, and sent to the "Union Reformer."

Next was a fifteen minutes talk on "The Meaning of Auxiliaries," by Rev. Mr. Siler.

We were then entertained by a wonderful program conducted by Mrs. M. E. Crews and Mrs. Naomi Haith. The program was unsurpassed.

Present was the choir from the First Baptist Church of Trinity, N. C., and the Young Men's Quartette from Gibsonville.

Saturday night's collection was $10.00.

Mrs. Holt from Trinity asked a blessing.

SUNDAY MORNING

9:30 O'clock.—Sunday school was conducted by Mr. J. W. Thacker.

The President and Mrs. Linsday presiding, "Stand Up For Jesus," was first sung, followed by prayer by Rev. L. S. Troxler. The school sang, "Saviour More Than Life to Me," after which the lesson was opened for discussion. The lesson was taken from the 22nd chapter of Acts and the 23rd verse.

The Senior classes were combined and taught by Mr. Thacker. Scholars, 26; pennies $1.05.

Class No. 2 was taught by Rev. J. A. Paylor from Greensboro. Scholars present, 17; pennies, 70 cents.

Class No. 3, taught by Mrs. E. L. Linsday. Scholars present, 7; pennies, 24 cents.

Scholars present, 50; pennies, $2.00.

12:00 O'clock.—Praise service was opened by singing, "I've Anchored My Soul," after which Rev. Mr. Robbins lined and sang, "I Love Thy Kingdom, Lord."

Scripture lesson was read by Rev. J. A. Paylor, Isaiah 62nd chapter.

Prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Robbins.

Rev. Mr. Linsday led, "O For a Closer Walk With God," after which he presented the speaker of the hour in the person of Rev. J. P. Caple.

Rev. Mr. Caple took the rostrum with his accustomed humor. His subject was, "The Auxiliary and Its Access to God." His text from the 62nd chapter of Isaiah and the first verse. He beautifully displayed the Auxiliary and its aid to the church; and to the human Christian race. Rev. Mr. Caple preached: He urged the Christian people to get a vision of the Holy Spirit; and "get on the job."

The convention was lifted up and we could truly say, "Did not our hearts burn within us as he talked with us by the way." We pray that Rev. Mr. Caple keep on preaching and consoling the Auxiliary as we need his support always. At the close of the sermon he sang, "I'm On My Way."

Afterwards the president sang, "Come Ye That Love the Lord." Prayer was offered by Rev. W. M. Linsday. Mrs. Gay sang, "I Am in His Care."

Next was the topic: "A fifteen-minutes discussion on how we may raise the standard higher for the Orphanage and the Home for the aged at Gibsonville," by Mr. J. W. Thacker. Mr. Thacker has the work very much at heart and he was very eloquent in his discourse.

LAST

To the Pastor and Members of Liberty Grove Baptist Church:

We, the members of the Auxiliary, pastors, delegates and friends, will never be able to say to you how much we appreciate your great hospitality. We have been made to feel at home and we have felt at home. We have had every comfort, and we we wish you to know in our weak way that we thank you and appreciate the care you have so sweetly taken of us. And we hope soon to have an opportunity to return to you some of the kindnesses you have so sweetly extended to us.

We have felt the spirit of God and a warm fellowship all through our meeting; and the sisters of the Auxiliary heartily ask the blessing of God and the sweet communion of His love to abide with you until we meet again.

MISS GRACE RUDD, Secretary.

Sister President, Officers, Members and Friends of the High Point Association:

It is with inexpressible joy that I greet you today.

As we gather here in the name of the Lord to report the works of this great body of Christian workers.

You are here in large numbers from your various fields of labor to get and to give inspiration. Sisters, God has guided us through 12 months. Though clouds are black, He is our guide. This year has been a pleasant one to me. I have done what I could in the name of the Lord.

(Sec. report for the year.)

I visited twenty-nine Auxiliaries and found them in good condition.

I wrote to twelve and they reported being in good condition.

I organized two Auxiliaries and one Sunshine Band. They are doing fine. I have done my best as Field Missionary. If God lets us live to meet at Winston I trust you will begin now. So you may be able to bring up more prayers, songs, Auxiliaries, and Sunshine Bands—bigger and better Auxiliaries, and larger amounts of money.

Delegates, remember our President in prayer. I also ask for your prayers.

Yours in Christ,
ESSIE LEE LINSDAY,
Field Missionary.

BOARD MEETING

The Board of the Woman's Auxiliary met at New Light Baptist church, Saturday morning, September 29th, 1928, at eleven o'clock. The meeting was opened by singing,

"What a Friend We Have in Jesus." The scripture lesson was taken from the 37th division of Psalms and was read by Mrs. Naomi Haith.

Prayer was offered by Mrs. Melvina Troxler.

Mrs. Gay sang a hymn and the Chairman then opened the meeting for business.

It was decided that the next drive be held with Oak Ridge First Baptist church on the fourth Sunday in November, 1928.

The President asked that an officer, or member of the Auxiliary visit each church in the Association for the purpose of building up the sisters work on the Home, and work up the coming drive.

It was decided that all monies collected in the drives and other ways be brought together and deposited in the bank, and paid out at the order of the Board for all expenses, whenever the President sees fit.

The Sisters were given the different churches as follows:

Mrs. M. E. Crews—St. John, Oak Springs and Reynold's Chapel.

Mrs. Thacker—Brown's New Calvary, Gethsemane, East White Oak.

Mrs. Mateer—Jones' Chapel, Wentworth, Chestnut Grove and Fair Grove.

Mrs. Gay—St. James, White Oak Grove and Terra Cotta.

Mrs. Haith—Martin's Chapel, Glen Raven, Jeffries Cross, Elon College, and the New Church at Burlington.

Mrs. Troxler and Mrs. McGill—Six churches in Winston.

Mrs. Linsday—Liberty Grove, Mechanic, and the New Church at High Point.

The fourth drive of the Woman's Auxiliary met with the Oak Ridge First Church, November 23, 1928.

The service was opened by singing hymn No. 246. Prayer was offered by Sister Crews. Next was hymn No. 335, lined by Rev. F. D. Fuller.

Next was the sermon by Rev. Mr. Waddlington. He took his text from the 16th chapter of Mark and the 15th verse. His subject was, "Go ye into all the world and preach my gospel." We were lifted up. The sisters took new courage and determination to put the program over, with God for our leader.

At the conclusion of the sermon prayer was offered by Rev. W. M. Linsday, after which Rev. Mr. Fuller presented the President of the Auxiliary in the person of Mrs. Addie Graves. Our President, who is always enthusiastic over the project, put the subject beautifully before the audience.

March 31, 1929.

The Woman's Auxiliary held their first drive for the year at Reynold's Chapel, Sunday March 31,, 1929, at Guilford College, N. C., pastored by Rev. F. D. Fuller.

The meeting was opened with a good praise service. Mrs. E. L. Linsday was in the chair in the absence of the President.

At 11:00 o'clock we were favored by a wonderful sermon from Rev. Mr. Fuller. Subect, "Christ, the Administrator of Them That Love Him," taken from the first chapter of John, the 12th verse. Rev. Mr. Fuller was at his best. He stirred us with his words of love, and admonished us to walk in the statues of right and encouraged us to be cheerful and faithful, for the blessing always comes to the faithful few.

At the conclusion of the wonderful sermon the congregation sang, "Don't Do That."

Prayer was offered by Rev. W. M. Linsday. Collection was lifted by Mrs. Emma Gay from Greensboro; and Mrs. Nora Griffith from Glen Raven. Amount, $5.00.

The blessing was asked by Mrs. Dovia Crompton from Mebane, N. C.

At the close of the service we were favored by remarks from Rev. Mr. Reid, pastor of Persimmon Grove.

Dismission for lunch.

3:00 o'clock P. M.—President in the chair. Meeting was opened by praise service, conducted by sisters from the different churches. After which the choir sweetly sang, "Holy, Holy, Holy." After this they sang, "My Soul Be On Thy Guard." Rev. Mr. Fuller read the first division of the Psalms and we were led in prayer by Mr. J. W. Graves. Hymn No. 404 was sung by the choir.

The President then presented Mr. J. W. Thacker, president of "Home Movement." Mr. Thacker made some very touching remarks. He tried hard to impress on us our duty toward the orphan and aged. He urged us to be more interested in meeting our payments and caring for those about us, who are needy and oppressed.

The President then sang, "Saviour More Than Life To Me." The meeting was then turned into a very warm testifying meeting which was enjoyed by all.

THE AIM OF THE AUXILIARY

For helping the poor and needy
For scattering words of cheer
For seeking the humble and lowly
That they of the Saviour might hear.

Traversing the highways and hedges
In search of one wandering soul.
With prayer, and with trust; to lead it
Back to the Master's fold.

With working unceasing for Jesus
Nor thinking the task is too great
To labor untiring until we have gone
Up to the golden gate.

We're only a small band of women
Yet wonderful things we can do
Because Jesus always will strengthen
And care for the faithful few.

Let love be our watchword dear sisters
And ever be loyal and brave
Because without love like the Master
We never, no never can save.

Only a small band of woman
Yet in his love each day
We'll scatter our flowers and sunshine
As we travel along life's way.

Sec. Woman's Auxiliary.
